CAREER HISTORY

FREELANCE FRENCH TRANSLATOR since February 1988

- ◆ Professionally qualified French Translator (French national) with over 24 years experience translating highly specialised documents, exclusively from English into French.
- ◆ Specialist in legal, financial, management and commercial documents.
- ◆ Work of a high standard, delivered to tight deadlines.
- ◆ Quality Control assured via Internet search and personal professional networking for accuracy of terminology with focus on thorough checking.
- ◆ Equipped with all industry standard hardware and software.
- ◆ 22 years spent in England, working full-time. Based in France since August 2006.
- ◆ Already a certified translator in the UK, I am now an Expert près la Cour d'appel d'Aix-en-Provence (certified translator) (Translator–Interpreter, English / French)
- ◆ Currently studying for a Diplôme Universitaire (DU): Formation juridique des Traducteurs Experts [legal training for certified translators and interpreters] (2 x 2 years). I have successfully completed one “DU” and will start my second “DU” in September 2010.
- ◆ In 2008/2009, I embarked on a 2-year training course organised by UCECAAP (Union des Compagnies d'Experts près la cour d'appel d'Aix-en-Provence). This is a compulsory course for translators who want to be registered as experts with their local court. I completed 5 modules in 2009 and so far I have completed a further 5 in 2010.
- ◆ Member of the Comité Français des Traducteurs Interprètes près la Cour d'appel d'Aix-en-Provence.
- ◆ Member of CETIJ (Nice) (Compagnie des experts traducteurs-interprètes judiciaires)
- ◆ Member of 2 professional institutes: the Institute of Translation and Interpreting, UK (Qualified Member – MITI) and the Société française des Traducteurs, Paris, France
- ◆ I constantly keep up to date with current professional practice by attending business conferences, including ITI network meetings, SFT regional meetings, the annual Paris Bourse Financial Workshop for financial translators (held in Paris), the recent 4e Université d'été de la traduction financière (3 days) held in Brussels, Petit kit de survie du traducteur juridique [legal translation course] held in Lyon in 2009, Traduire les contrats sans trahir le droit held in Aix-en-Provence in 2010.

- ◆ I keep abreast of cultural and linguistic developments in both countries through frequent visits to England where my daughter lives, subscribing to specialised magazines (e.g. La Vie financière), reading French/British newspapers, watching British television at home, etc.
- ◆ Designed and organised an exhibition stand providing an insight into my services as a translator at the Norfolk Chamber of Commerce (UK).
- ◆ From 2003 to 2004 I was a French tutor on the DPSI (Diploma in Public Service Interpreting) at the University of Bedford (UK), and as an author I have had many articles published in the ITI Bulletin, the journal of the ATA (American Translators Association), Au Courant (the ITI French Network Bulletin) and Traduire (Société française des Traducteurs newsletter).
- ◆ In May 2004, I was asked to give a talk to MA students (translation studies) and language graduates on "How to market yourself successfully as a freelance translator", at a Student Conference in Leeds organised jointly by ITI and the University of Leeds (UK).
- ◆ In April 2009 I was a guest lecturer for City University (London, UK), for the MA Legal Translation (Litigation) and taught MA students (1st year) during the Module 3 workshop. I had to deputise for the existing lecturer at short notice, and am currently second marker on an ongoing basis.

Company: INTERCONTINENTAL TRANSLATORS (CITY) CO., LONDON, UK
December 1986 - February 1988

Position: French Translator and Administrator

- ◆ Translation into French of documents of a legal, financial and commercial nature as well as insurance documents and a variety of other subjects.
- ◆ Processing documents received for translation, allocating them to the appropriate translator, organising deadlines, printing and returning the finished product to the client.
- ◆ Responsible for Account Management.

Company: COLLIER MACMILLAN FRENCH DICTIONARY PROJECT
Summer 1986

Position: Freelance French Translator

- ◆ Member of the Collier Macmillan French Dictionary Project supervised by Edwin Carpenter and Marie-Noëlle Lamy, both leading members of the editing team who created the First Edition of the Collins Robert Bilingual Dictionary

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- ◆ Worked as part of a team of 3 translators on documents concerning the merger of Grand Met and Guinness, involving 150,000 words in 3 days
- ◆ Translation of proposal documents regarding the City of Manchester's bid for hosting the Olympic Games
- ◆ Wrote and translated Peter O'Toole's acceptance speech for the Légion d'Honneur. I subsequently taught him French in his house in Hampstead.
- ◆ Translation into French of Deutsche Telekom privatisation proposals plus many more significant projects and prestigious contracts for Government departments, major banks, private companies and other internationally-known organisations and clients.
